Join our team of expert physicians on Saturday, October 18th as they focus on identifying and presenting the facts about seizures. This event has been prepared especially for the emergency response community – EMS, Police, and Firemen as well as Emergency Department, ICU, and Group Home Nurses – along with the teaching community.

Location: 100 Hospital Road, Patchogue, across the street from Brookhaven Memorial Hospital, Conference Room 206

Itinerary:
- 8:15 am Registration and Refreshments
- 9:00 am Welcome and Introduction – Edward Firouztale DO, DSc
- 9:10 am Definition and Classification of Seizures – Edward Firouztale DO, DSc
- 9:40 am ADHD and Seizures – Alan Ettinger MD, MBA
- 10:10 am What is an EEG? – Vanessa Tassone, R.NCS.T
- 10:30 am Use of Video EEG and Alternative Treatments – Bhupinder Singh Anand MD
- 11:00 am Refreshments Break
- 11:20 am First Responders and Epilepsy – Norman Pflaster MD
- 11:50 am Vagal Nerve Stimulator/Importance of Information – Laura Buck MS, NP-C, CNRN
- 12:20 pm Cognitive, Emotional and Behavioral Changes in Epilepsy – Edward Barnoski PhD ABPP/ABCN
- 12:50 pm Questions and Answers
- 1:10 pm Adjourn

Registration required. Seating is limited.

To register contact Stephanie Warn at (631)666-3939 ext. 1244

Topics to be discussed include but are not limited to: what is epilepsy, how to distinguish different seizures, first aid for seizures, how to identify and help a person having a seizure, treatment options in epilepsy, and cognitive, emotional and behavioral changes in epilepsy. Active Participation is encouraged.

All Suffolk EMS providers who attend will receive 3 hours of Non-core CME. All ASET NeuroDiagnostic Technicians will receive 3.5 hours of ASET-CEU’s. This continuing nursing education activity is pending approval for 3 credits by the New York State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.